The Administrator shall not fail to consider legal implications when adopting, modifying or eliminating an administration policy or regulation that could create a substantial risk of legal liability to the school or when taking or failing to take action that could create a substantial risk of legal liability to the school.

Monitoring Method: Internal Report